

Innovative Practices / Best Practices in the Department

Model and Chart Preparation: Students are encouraged to design and prepare models and educational charts. This hands-on activity enhances conceptual understanding, creativity, and practical skills related to core mining engineering subjects

